DAISY BLOSSOMS.

Bown in the clover blossoms

Where the evening's breath is sweet,
Lingering, I pluck the daisies
That whiten at my feet.

Non day with sunset's splendor Kindling the field and wood, Kissing the laughing river, Sinks in a golden flood.

You rosy streamers die, Sweet stars, night's heralds, tremble Soft in the eastern sky But still the laugh of children,

The reaper's even song, The music of an evening hymn. The joyous day prolong. Till shadows gather darkling Across the thorny hill— Till toil and pain are sleeping And all the world is still.

I cannot tell you how

Sweet dreams and ardent longings, Yearnings of joy and pain, Passions insatiate througing, Crowd through the troubled brain. Scorning the earth's ambitions, Spurning the vulgar sod, Striving for something better, Climbing to rounds untrod.

And thus, O meadows daisied: Sweet fields with flowers bright, I gather more than blossoms Under the customic light.
